What we are looking for:

- Passionate individuals who are committed to personal and professional development and want to deliver the type of therapy that changes lives
- Someone who loves physiotherapy and wants to be part of a team that makes a difference
- Continually wanting to grow your skill set and practice new techniques
- Someone who wants to build a robust treatment programme and potentially add to the company's service offering

We have a wonderful team working out of a fantastic clinic. As a small team we are able to maintain great communication with all members of staff, and ensure everyone is treated as an individual, both staff and patients.

With a variety of treatments, assessments and options for our patients, we provide a great atmosphere to really make a difference to people's lives. It helps that 85% of our patients are self-funding and the rest are insurance or consultant referrals so minimal time spent on paperwork and no pressure from commissioning or NHS red tape.

Don't just take our word for it, our current staff have given us this feedback:

"The culture of Strong Lines is really like no other. We take care of one and other, so we can take better care of others. I feel it's an environment where I can actively use my whole range of skills. A healthy work-life balance is encouraged and facilitated by the company. I am constantly developing – it is why I wanted to work in healthcare in the first place." Tom – Senior Physiotherapist

"I love working in a place where daily we can see the positive effects we are making to people's lives. At Strong Lines, our world revolves around the client; coming from a customer service background, this makes me really happy! It is all about removing barriers, to create an environment which is open, comfortable and actually great fun!" Sasha – Practice Manager

"Strong Lines was set up with the vision of being a company that people love working for. I strongly believe that if you are happy, that positivity is passed onto everyone around you, which makes for one hell of a therapist. As a company, if there is something you want to achieve or specialise in, we are a platform to grow and develop skills. Hard work is always extremely well rewarded!" Fred Braithwaite – Director

What consultants say about us:

"We would like to officially thank you for providing excellent physiotherapy care to our patients. Your services have been timely, targeted and extremely professional. Please continue to provide good support. Thank you." Mr Shabin Joshi and El-Maghraby – Neurosurgery

"I have used Fred Braithwaite and his colleagues for many years and am very happy with their professional approach and clinical skills and so remain very happy to refer my patients onto them." Mr Crawford – Orthopaedics

So, if you want to be part of a team making a difference, if you want to truly love your job, if you want your skills to be appreciated – apply now. Only qualified physiotherapists with HCPC and CSP registration will be considered – send your CV to fred@stronglines.co.uk.
